SUNDAY AT THE FAIR

One Hundred and Twenty-Five Thousand People

ENTER THE COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

A Great Many State Buildings Closed
—All of the Government and Many of the Foreign Exhibits Under Lock and Key.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, May 28.—One hundred and twenty-five thousand people, after a week of toll, came to the World's Fair grounds yesterday, and with souls full of glee, drank in inspiring music and feasted their eyes upon the artistic and natural beauties of the White city, while their minds were improved by studying the works of genius and industry. It was the first open Sunday, and it was a success.

The Sabbath sun was but two hours old when the people began to come into the grounds, and the morning transportation brought the quays and the steamer piers and the railroads came long lines of people. But the masses did not begin to arrive until noon. Beginning about 3 o'clock the multitude flooded into the grounds at every gate, and by 4 o'clock 50,000 people were inside the enclosure. The people kept on coming the entire afternoon. The crowds were so great that they overflowed into the Kildare plazas, and now the fair is crowded until the attendance mark had been elevated to 100,000. After dark the grounds were lighted up and the together with other features of the illumination, attracted still more, and when the crowds were about ready to go home a conservative estimate placed their number for the day at over 125,000. It was an ideal day, all the exhibits were open, and the majority of the opinion is that it had already been kept away from its property altogether too long and they took possession in the name of "Tollett's day."

The music during the day was of an elevating character, and the band stands were surrounded by large crowds which grew enthusiastic over Schubert's "Seventy" a selection from "Lohengrin," Grieg's sacred song "There is a Green Hill Far Away," the good old hymn "Aaron My God to Thee" and the Coronation march from Meyerbeer's "Le Prophet." The music which was continuous from 1:30 in the afternoon until 10 at night was furnished by Sousas, the Chicago and Cincinnati bands. Sunday opening was frowned upon, however, in the north and east of the parks, where the American state buildings were open to the public, but a happy and united family. The members of the great American Union were estranged on the day when the Gospel of peace and good will is preached from the Christian pulpit. The multitude of visitors did not throng the state circle, and the few thousands who passed through were not disappointed in the pleasure of the park. The gates were closed. There was no much else to see that was more attractive than the inside of the state buildings, most of which are made up of so many reception rooms, the exhibits being in the big buildings that were thrown open.

A few of the state commissioners were left no alternative but to close the doors of their buildings as the legislature and no orders, but the state itself, gave them authority in refusing admission to visitors. The doors of fifteen state and territorial buildings were locked for this day only, and visitors were generally informed to this effect by card. Missouri, Delaware, New York, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Connecticut, Maryland and Massachusetts, were among the building of which the people obtained only an intimation.

The influence of the Angelina church was seen by the visitors who desired to enter the buildings erected by Great Britain and her Majesty's colonies. All were closed tight, and no person could even be seen inside, which was not the case with the "closed" state buildings. The great carved oak doors of Victoria's houses were shut, although the Union Jack floated from the roof. Canada's flag was flyingly but the doors were closed tight, and even the windows were closed. New South Wales supplemented the "closed today" sign with the following unnecessary words: "Keep on." This means you. Even at the India building, which is chiefly a private commercial enterprise, the "closed" sign was hung out.

The Customs House was enforced. Chicago, May 28.—The World's fair of the Lake Shore and New York Central railroads will not make the trip from Chicago to New York in twenty hours, as it did its initial trip yesterday, starting at 2 p. m. and arriving at its destination at 10 a. m. Monday. The corresponding westbound flyers will leave at 3 p. m. to day and make the same running time. The equipment of the trains will be the most perfect ever attempted in this service. In addition to this fact, the train on the Lake Shore will put on five more trains each way, making an average time of twenty-six hours between Chicago and New York, and will shorten the running time of the limited trains half an hour.

The Customs House was enforced. Chicago, May 28.—Alfred de Claparde, the Swiss minister to the United States, arrived in the city from Washington Saturday. He had been telegraphed by General Hollinger on account of the recent strike between the United States and Switzerland, for discharge of exhibitors at the fair. Mr. Claparde called on the district attorney, and after an explanation of the action of the government expressed his entire satisfaction with the course pursued. Attorney McLish told him that the government was not disposed of acting oppressively toward the exhibitors, but that a strict enforcement of the customs laws was necessary.

Hold Up by the Police. Chicago, May 28.—A distinguished-looking German, giving his name as Count William von Zeilte of Heidelberg, is held by the police to await examination to-day for having money under his belt. He was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out by John J. Johnson, of 910 Belmont avenue, who alleged that the gentleman with a title "bounced" him out of $8,000, which he intrusted to his care.

WHITE LOAF

The Best.

The First M. E. Church.

The services at the First M. E. church were well attended both morning and evening. In the morning Rev. T. A.

Parker preached from the text: "I have fought a good fight," and in showing up the Christian character of St. Paul made some beautiful allusions, by way of illustration to those who defended their conscientious on the field of battle. This was drawn out by the fact that it was a Memorial Sunday.

In the evening Rev. Parker preached on the parable of "Selling the Tempt of Gethsemane." Before the sermon the congregation united with the pastor in a corporate reading. Several persons were received into the church during the day.
The church was up with the high standard for which the congregation is noted.

AN OCCASIONAL BOTTLE OF AYRE'S SCAPULIS DOES MORE TO CORRECT THE TEMPER OF THE BLOOD TO ASSIMILATE HUMOR, AND KEEP THE ORGANS SOUND AND HEALTHY, THAN ANY OTHER TREATMENT WE KNOW. IT
"REVIVATION IS BETTER THAN CURE." TRY IT AT THE KNIGHT.

SCAPULIS CURES EVERY ILL TO WHICH HUMOR
IS THE CAUSE, AS A MATTER OF FACT, IT
DOES SOONER DO THIS THAN ANY OTHER MED-ICINE EVER COMPOUNDED. IN PURIFYING THE BLOOD, IT REMOVES THE SOURCE OF NEARLY ALL DISEASES OF THE HUMAN SYSTEM.
